

Win the Insight and NACS International Convenience Retailer of the Year Award 2010

Applegreen fought off tough competition to win the 2010 International Convenience Retailer of the Year Award, which was presented during the Insight Future of International Convenience Retailing Awards Dinner at the Grand Connaught Rooms in London last Tuesday, 21st September.

This prestigious award recognizes excellence in convenience and forecourt retailing on an international stage, by celebrating the best convenience retail formats from around the world.

Insight and NACS were delighted to announce that entries to the 2010 competition had more than doubled compared from 2009, with 17 entries in total. There were submissions from around the globe, spanning the continents of Europe, Africa, Australia, North and South America. A list of entries is below.

- 7-Eleven Australia, Australia
- Applegreen, Ireland
- BP Hampton Court, UK
- BP Dube Village, South Africa
- AF Blakemore - Conrad Davies, Eurospar, Wales
- Caltex Star Mart, Bondi, Australia
- Cosan, Brazil
- Fresh Stop, South Africa
- James Graven - Jonathan James, Budgens, UK
- Murco Petroleum/Costcutter, UK
- Pick n Pay, South Africa
- Rewe, Temma, Germany
- Rutter's, USA
- Scotmid Co-operative, Scotland
- Spar UK, UK
- Topaz, Ireland
- Topaz Centra, Ireland

Joe Barrett, Applegreen's Operations Director collected the award, at the ceremony in London, 'This is an extremely proud day for Applegreen. We are passionate about our brand and are continually pushing ourselves to deliver excellence for our customers. To be recognized for these efforts on the world stage is a great honour, not just for me, but for all the team'.